FROM THE RECTOR

Greetings from the kingdom of God, the reign of love and the culture of peace
(already in progress somewhere very, very close to you!)

And Happy New Year.

As Advent reminded us, a future is opening before us. Now, I should describe the year ahead as a critical year for Holy Trinity. Our moment in time seems to require such a bold statement. But then, every day is of critical importance in the building of trust and in the restoration of hope, two ‘critical’ elements without which no community can thrive.

But in our case, I believe that we will progress along two distinct trajectories – a short and a long game if you will – that will progress independently of each other but will also be deeply informed by the other.

The short game will be comprised of the work we do to heal the wounds that fester beneath our collective surface; some that we attempt to hide, some that leave visible traces, all of which cause pain or regret or even anger. The parish has formed a grief group to assist members that have experienced the loss of a loved one. Perhaps we need to establish one so that we can talk about the Holy Trinity that we have lost. In any event, we need to take this short game seriously if we are to trust each other in the work that God is calling us to do.

That work is the stuff of the long game, and what it will entail is anyone’s guess, but it will require us to move beyond our comfort zones and challenge our most foundational conceptions about the meaning and purpose of the Church. We have already taken a few exploratory steps, reaching out to neighbors working on issues of educational and environmental justice – we hope to host a listening session for parents, teachers and students sometime in February or March - and opening a dialog with the Diocese about developing our property as a mission center in Eastern Baltimore County, something vital and essential to members of the wider community and a place where the faithful will also break bread and sip wine while remembering why it is we do these things and dream these dreams and whose loving example we always strive to follow.

But even all of that is only scratching the surface – that’s why it’s the long game. So, again, happy new year. I look forward to next January when we will pause to recount all of the many meaning-filled things that occurred during 2023 and marvel at how far we have come.

Peace,
Ken+

Staying Connected, Staying Church

COVID restrictions continue. This is how we are continuing to love our neighbors and ourselves.

What can you do in the midst of this uncertainty?

1. Read the updates provided monthly in The Vine newsletter to keep you in touch with what's happening at Holy Trinity. If something comes up that cannot wait until the next newsletter, an email update will be sent out.
2. Worship regularly, whether in person or online.
3. Keep up your pledge. Our mailbox is locked, so your mail-in contributions are safe.
4. Stay in touch. Call or email each other. Call or email our Senior Warden, Chris Kinard. Keep each other in prayer.
5. Pray for Holy Trinity and for the Vestry.

If you have been sending in your pledge regularly, thank you!

When sending contributions, please be sure to distinguish between your pledge and any other donations, such as for Outreach. Use separate checks. If you send only one check, it will be recorded as pledge.

Again, thank you to all who continue to support Holy Trinity. Your pledges and other contributions are essential for ministry at Holy Trinity.

Outreach Ministries

from Lynn French, Chairperson

Operation Backpack:

The backpack ministry to Sandalwood Elementary School continues as it has been. You are always welcome to contribute by bringing needed food items such as: single serve oatmeal packets, applesauce cups, fruit cups, raisins, packs of peanuts, crackers, ramen noodles, instant chicken noodle soup, juice boxes, or white or chocolate milk or Yoohoo. We also accept small cans of tuna and boxes of macaroni and cheese. You can place any donated food items in the bin marked "Operation Backpack" in the Parish Hall. You can also make a monetary donation at any time.

The bags are packed between the 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. services. All are welcome to join in the effort. Also, each week there is a rotation of folks who deliver the bags to Sandalwood Elementary School. We can always use additional volunteers to deliver the backpacks! If you have any questions, please contact Chris or myself.

Animal Shelter Donations:

Our Angel Tree donations were to benefit the Baltimore County Animal Services shelter. The donated items were delivered at the end of December.

Eastern Interfaith Outreach (EIO):

EIO is situated in the new location and are once again open to serve those in need. They are operating on an appointment basis, so please call in advance. The new address is listed later in this newsletter under “Food Pantry”.

We are still collecting shelf stable food items such as canned soup, pork and beans, tuna, chicken for EIO. If you are able to buy a few items on your next grocery shopping trip, please do so. Please make sure the expiration date is at least several months out. There is a bin in the Parish Hall labeled “EIO Donations” where you can place the donated canned food items to help those in need in our community. (More detailed information regarding EIO is also provided below under the Food Pantry section.)

Ronald McDonald House Baltimore:

Please continue to collect the pull tabs from any aluminum can products. I collect the tabs, and once or twice per year I take them to RMH. The tabs are then recycled with the profit used to fuel the shuttle bus to take family members of the children to the local hospitals. The collection box is located on the lower shelf of the main table in the Narthex.

If anyone has any questions or would like to be a part of the planning for any or all the Outreach ministries we do, please let me know. All are welcome.

I pray many blessing for our ministry at Holy Trinity and for each of us as we provide to those in need.

In His Holy name.

Lynn
